2 APPLICATION OF THESE CONDITIONS, COMMENCEMENT AND DURATION

2.1 The Company shall supply the Products and Services (whichever is applicable) on the terms and conditions of this Contract. For the avoidance of doubt, the terms and conditions set out in this Contract shall apply to the complete exclusion of any other terms or conditions contained in, or referred to, in the Order or any other communication received by the Company from the Customer in connection with the subject matter of this Contract and to the greatest extent permitted by law as implied by law, trade custom, practice or course of dealing.

2.2 In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Contract and any other contract provided by the Company in connection with the supply of the applicable Product or Service, then the following order of precedence of terms shall apply:

2.2.1 any contract for the supply of products and/or services executed in writing and signed by a duly authorised representative of both the Company and Customer;

2.2.2 the Prolmmune, Inc. Terms and Conditions for Research Services (if any) that were issued by the Company to the Customer contemporaneously (that is to say in the same communication) with an applicable Quote;

2.2.3 the terms and conditions in this document.

2.3 All Quotes are for information purposes only and do not constitute an offer by the Company. The Customer may use the Quote to make an Order.

2.4 Once a Customer places an Order, such Order constitutes an offer by the Customer to purchase the Products and/or Services specified in the relevant Quote on the terms and conditions of this Contract. Accordingly, the acknowledgement of the Order by the Company, or the Company's commencement or provision of the Services and/or processing the Order for Products, shall establish a contract for the supply and purchase of those Products and/or Services on the terms and conditions of this Contract.

2.5 Without prejudice to the continuation of any right or obligation expressly stated to survive termination or expiry of the Contract, unless terminated earlier in accordance with Section 9, this Contract shall automatically expire on the later of (i) completion of the Services and delivery of the final report as set out in the Quote; or (ii) full and final settlement by the Customer of all fees or charges due under the Contract; or (iii) in the event that full and final settlement by the Customer of all fees or charges due under the Contract has not been made in accordance with Section 5, then three (3) months following completion of the Services. For the avoidance of doubt, expiry of the Contract does not affect the Customer's continuing obligation to settle any outstanding invoices or fees and charges due under the Contract.

3 USE AND DELIVERY OF THE PRODUCTS and RESULTS OF SERVICES

3.1 Products and the results of the Services are provided "as is" for research and laboratory use only and, for the avoidance of doubt, Company, does not represent, guarantee or warrant (i) that any particular result will be achieved or reproduced in providing the Services; or (ii) the merchantability or fitness for any particular purpose of any of the Products and results of the Services. Customer shall not use the Products and results of the Services for any diagnostic or therapeutic use in humans or animals.

3.2 In the absence of a written agreement to the contrary, all Products and the results of Services are sold by the Company for the exclusive use of the Customer and are not to be re-sold or otherwise dealt with by the Customer.

3.3 The Company reserves the right to deliver pack sizes different from those ordered.

3.4 Where Products are collected from the Company's premises, the Customer or his representative must ensure that all statutory requirements relating to the transport carriage and handling of the Products are complied with.

3.5 If the Customer does not take delivery of the Products when arranged then the Company may store the Products until actual delivery has been effected and charge the Customer for reasonable costs (including insurance) of storage. In such circumstances the Customer waives any rights accruing to it or causes of action which may arise as a consequence of or in connection with the matters set out in this Section 3.5.

3.6 The Company shall not owe the Customer any duty of care under section 3.5 above and shall not be liable for any loss damage or deterioration of the Products during storage.

4 OBLIGATIONS OF THE PARTIES

4.1 The Company shall use reasonable endeavours to provide the Services and Products as set out in the Quote and in accordance with this Contract including the timeframes indicated in the Quote, but any such timeframes shall be estimates only and time shall not be of the essence in the Contract. The Company shall not be liable for any direct or indirect loss or damage due to any failure or delay in delivery or failure to notify the Customer of any expected delay.

4.2 Where the Contract provides for the Customer to supply materials and samples ("Samples") to the Company for the purpose of carrying out the Services, the Customer shall transport such Samples to and from the Company's premises at the Customer's sole expense and risk unless agreed expressly otherwise in writing. The Customer shall provide a relevant material data safety sheet with all Samples to be provided to the Company and complete any documentation in relation to Samples as may be expressly set out in the Quote. Such Samples shall at all times remain the property of the Customer and the Company agrees to use such Samples only as necessary to perform the Services in accordance with the Contract and for no other purpose. The Company agrees that while it has custody of the Samples it shall store the Samples in a traceable manner. Upon completion of the Services or upon termination or expiry of the Contract, the Company shall upon request by and at the direction of the Customer return all remaining Samples to the Customer at the Customer's risk and expense and if the Company receives no such direction within a period of six (6) months from such completion, termination, or expiry, the Company may destroy and dispose of such Samples without liability of the Company to the Customer in compliance with applicable laws.

4.3 The Customer shall provide to the Company in a timely manner such information as the Company may reasonably require to provide the Services and the Products and warrants that such information shall be complete, suitable and accurate in all material respects. The Customer further warrants that to its actual knowledge and belief the Company's performance of the Services will not breach any applicable law or the intellectual property or other rights of any third party, including without limitation as a result of the Company using Samples, specifications, information, instructions, and/or directions supplied by or on behalf of the Customer in performing the Service.

4.4 In the event that Samples comprise any material that consists of or includes human cells, the Customer represents and warrants that (i) all such Samples supplied by or on behalf of the Customer to the Company have been obtained with the express, free and informed consent of each person from whom the Samples were collected and that each such consent covers the use of the Samples by the Company under this Contract; and (ii) if any ethics approval(s) is required to use the Samples under this Contract, the Customer has obtained such ethic(s) approvals, and that such ethics approval(s) covers the use of the Samples by the Company under this Contract.

4.5 If the Company provides to the Customer any Services that fail in some material respect to conform to the specifications set forth in the Contract, the Customer's sole remedy, without further liability of the Company shall be as follows: on receipt of written notice from the Customer that such Services do not so conform, which must be received by the Company within thirty (30) days from the date on which the Company delivers such Services to the Customer, the Company shall, at its discretion, either:

4.5.1 so conform such Services to the applicable specifications; or

4.5.2 credit to the Customer the portion of any monies paid by the Customer to the Company for the performance of such non-conforming Services. For the avoidance of doubt, if any Services exceed the specifications set out in the Quote, this shall not constitute a failure to conform in some material respect as contemplated under this Section.

4.6 The Company reserves the right, at its sole discretion, to defer the date of delivery or performance, or to cancel the Contract or reduce the volume of Products to be supplied without (i) liability to the Customer or (ii) being deemed to be in breach of contract, if it is prevented from or delayed in carrying on its business by any cause beyond the Company's reasonable control (which includes without limitation any Act of God, explosion, flood, tempest, fire or accident, war or threat of war, sabotage, insurrection, civil disturbance or requisition, acts, restrictions, regulations, by-laws, prohibitions or measures of any kind on the part of any governmental, parliamentary, local or other authority, import or export regulations or embargoes, strikes, lock-outs or other industrial actions or trade disputes (whether involving employees of the Company or of a third party), difficulties in obtaining raw materials, labour, fuel, parts or machinery, power failure or breakdown in machinery), each a "Force Majeure".

In such circumstances, the Company shall give notice to the Customer of the commencement and nature of the Force Majeure event.

5.2 The sums to be paid to the Company by the Customer for the Services shall be in United States Dollars and shall be invoiced and payable as provided for in the Quote. Where the Customer does not have a credit account with the Company, payment in full for all amounts due under this Contract must be received by the Company before the Company can commence any work under the Contract to provide any Products or Services. Where the Customer has a credit account with the Company the Customer shall pay such invoices in full within thirty (30) days after receipt thereof by bank transfer to the bank account of the Company as indicated on the Company's invoices. 5.4.1 the Company may charge interest on any outstanding overdue amounts on a daily basis at a rate equivalent to 9 per cent per annum; and

5.4.2 suspend its provision of any or all of the Services immediately.

5.5 All risk in relation to the Products and results of the Services passes to the Customer upon delivery but the title to the Products and results of the Services remains vested in the Company until all sums owed by the Customer to the Company on whatsoever account have been paid in full.

5.6 This Section 5 and the obligations set out herein shall survive (i) expiry or termination of the Contract; or (ii) any assignment or transfer of the Contract or rights or obligations under it as expressed in Section 10.3.

6 INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

6.1 All intellectual property and other proprietary rights (including but not limited to trademarks and copyright) and all technical business or similar information (including but not limited to all designs documents and other materials relating to the Products and Services) created by or on behalf of the Company in performing the Contract shall be and shall remain the property of the Company.

HEREUNDER SUCH TOTAL LIABILITY IN CONTRACT, TORT (INCLUDING NEGLIGENCE OR BREACH OF STATUTORY DUTY), MISREPRESENTATION, RESTITUTION OR OTHERWISE, ARISING IN CONNECTION WITH THE PERFORMANCE (OR CONTEMPLATED PERFORMANCE) OF THE CONTRACT SHALL BE LIMITED TO THE PAYMENTS ACTUALLY RECEIVED BY THE COMPANY UNDER THIS CONTRACT OVER THE TWELVE MONTHS PRECEDING THE DATE ON WHICH SUCH LIABILITY AROSE.

8.6 THE PROVISIONS OF THIS SECTION 8 SHALL SURVIVE ANY EXPIRY OR TERMINATION OF THIS CONTRACT.

9 TERMINATION

9.1 The Contract may be terminated (i) by either party at any time in the exercise of its sole discretion upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the other party, or (ii) by one party upon the material breach of this Contract by the other party, which material breach continues uncured for thirty (30) days after delivery to the breaching party by the non-breaching party of written notice specifying the material breach and requiring its remedy, or (iii) by either party by notice in writing to the other party, such notice to take effect as specified in the notice, if (I) the other party becomes insolvent or unable to pay its debts as and when they become due or (II) an order is made or a resolution is passed for the winding up of the other party (other than voluntarily for the purpose of solvent amalgamation or reconstruction), or (III) a liquidator, administrator, administrative receiver, receiver, or trustee is appointed in respect of the whole or any part of the other party's assets or business, or (IV) the other party makes any composition with its creditors or (V) the other party ceases to continue its business.
